(8) GENERAL CONDITIONS :-

- a. The merit of each candidate shall be determined on the basis of marks secured by him or her in the qualifying degree. There will not be any entrance test.
- b. The qualifying marks obtained by each candidate will be normalized using a set formula. After normalization of marks for each university of the Punjab State, a combined merit list will be prepared. Normalization of marks will not be applicable to the candidates taking admission under the all India quota.
- c. After normalization of marks, 5% marks will be given to candidates who have passed their 8th and 10th class examination from schools situated in rural areas of Punjab. For this, they will have to submit a certificate of that school falling in rural area at the time of passing 8th as well as 10th class issued by the Head of the School, duly countersigned by the concerned D.E.O.

- d. The University will notify the last date for submission of application forms for the counseling. The forms will have to be submitted on line.
- e. The reservation of seats as given above shall be strictly adhered to. However, in case seats in a reserved category remain vacant, on account of non-availability of qualified candidates, such seats may be filled up from the general category candidates.
- f. The admission of total number of seats in the colleges of education for candidates belonging to Science, Humanities, Commerce/ Management, Home Science, Sanskrit and Computer Education/I.T. will be done as per the norms laid down by the N.C.T.E as per clause 3.1 of the appendix i.e.1-25 students per teacher for a school subject.
- g. Candidates applying for the reserved category shall carefully indicate the claim for only one category in the admission form to be submitted to the University in the first instance before the counseling. No change of category will be entertained /permitted at a later stage in the application form.
- h. The allocation of college will be made by computerized counseling.
- i. There will be two counseling's for admission to B.Ed. seats and the total process of counseling will be completed as per the schedule prepared by the university. However, one time shifting of seat will be allowed before second counseling on charges to be specified by the university.
- j. That in the case of subject combination, every institute must fill at least 24% seats out of the total approved intake of seats with any one or more of the following combinations:-

- k. The counseling schedule will be prepared by the admission committee constituted by the Vice-Chancellor.
- l. All seats in the B.Ed. colleges will be filled through centralized counseling only by the university.
- m. After completion of two counseling's the admissions committee will take decision about filling of unfilled seats. The method proposed would be in light of the decisions taken by the Punjab and Haryana High Court regarding C.W.P. No. 19518 dated 14.12.2009. The admission committee would fill all the seats. After the end of this round, no college would be allowed to fill the unfilled seats.
- n. In counseling only the major subject would be allotted by the university. The minor subject would be allotted by the college. Allocation of seat does not mean confirmation of admission. The admission will be confirmed by the college concerned after checking and verification of documents.
- o. It is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure that correct information is provided when the online form is filled.
- p. Any incorrect information will lead to disqualification.
- q. Checking final certificates would be the responsibility of the college.
- r. For filling up of seats, in the first instance, two counseling's of All India seats will be held. The seats falling vacant in the All India quota will be converted into Science and Arts seats. Then two counseling's for Science seats will be held. The seats falling vacant in the Science quota will be converted into Arts seats. After that, the counseling will start for the Arts seats.
- s. Whatsoever information the college wants to give to the candidate should be made available on college website. A separate printed prospectus is not required.
