

CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF SOCIAL EXCLUSION AND INCLUSIVE POLICY

Coordinator

Dr. Paramjit Singh

Lecturer-cum-Assistant Director

Dr. Harpreet Kaur

The Centre was established in the year 2007 under the XI Plan of the UGC. The main aim of the Centre is to study, explore and analyse various facets of social exclusion and to suggest policy measures on social inclusion of the excluded communities and groups.

Research and Research Guidance

The Centre is engaged in interdisciplinary research on various forms of social exclusion and inclusive policy. The Centre endeavours to carry out research in the area of social exclusion with a focus on schedule castes, religious minorities and ethnic groups with special emphasis on Punjab. In addition to various research programmes, the Centre also offers Ph.D. guidance in different social sciences disciplines in the area of social exclusion.